How. W. W. CULBERTSON at last accounts was still alive, and his physicians entertain hope of his recovery.

Every Democrat should come to the front on Monday and vote for Judge Riddell. Every vote will be needed.

The grangers of Brown County, Ohlo, expect to hold their annual fair this season near Red Oak Postoffice, on the 15th day of October.

RENEMBER that the vote for Riddell in this county will be the basis of represen-tation in the convention. See, there-fore, that it is a full one.

Colone, Hour is a straight out Republican, who never scratches his ticket. If any Democrat votes for him he will do so with his eyes open. For many years the increase of population of the United States in time of peace has been almost precisely two per cent, yearly from excess of births over deaths, beside the excess of persons coming in to the country overthose going out. The "forger, perjurer and glelon" referred to above is supposed to mean Thomas F. Hargis, and the paragraph is simply the steoreotyped expression of the editor's disappointment over his failure in the courts at Louisville, in his suit with Hargis. Although it's the first time the elitor of the Benlarm's has been honored with its application, it has been printed so often in connection with other persons and things it has become monotonous and things it has become monotonous and nanesating. A Hog Incident.

Editor Rulletia: On Tuesslay there was presented quite a novel scene on Market street, which may perhaps be of interest to you as an item on the porker question. Mr. Dinner's mule was astanding on the upa and downs of a dray male's life, when he was disturbed by something rubbing against his forelegs. Looking down he saw one of the nunch talked of tribe of 10.9, coolly scratching himself against his (the mule's) sline. Something the street of the same than the street of the had but a stump), raised him high in the air, and for several moments contemplated him with the quiet, severe scrutiny of a philosopher. The pik kept up racket sufficient to arouse all block droily when the mule sattified that it was rightly when the mule sattified that it was rightly and a pen or made into sall nead.

Rosy Mouths furnished with teeth rendered pearly and furnished with teeth rendered pearly and glistening by fragrant Scoolont, usually regarded as an indispensable adjunct of the toliet, are perfectly bewitching. So irresiatible does the broad cloth sex find them, that it requires the utnost self restraint to forbear imprinting a kiss upon them wherever seen. No corrosive substance contaminates this standard beautifier of the teeth, from which it removes every impurity. Use it regularly.
